DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In Re:

Case No.

Debtor(s)

Chapter 13

CHAPTER 13 PLAN

_____ Original _____ Amended

This plan contains provisions that effect the rights of most or all creditors of the above debtor(s). It also contains provisions regarding treatment of secured claims and priority claims that rely upon the debtor's interpretation of the recent amendments to 11 U.S.C. §1325, §1326 and other Bankruptcy Code provisions. Some of these provisions may be subject to different interpretations. The failure of any creditor (secured or otherwise) whose rights are effected or impaired by this plan to file written opposition to confirmation in accordance with the Interim Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and local rules of this court shall be deemed such creditor's affirmative acceptance of the plan.

Pursuant to applicable provisions of 11 U.S.C. §1321, §1322 and §1325, the debtor(s) propose(s) the following Chapter 13 plan of reorganization and repayment:

1. Funding of the Plan and Determination of Minimum Distribution to Unsecured Creditors

c. 1. The debtor shall make ____ weekly ____ bi-monthly ____ monthly payments to the Chapter 13 trustee in the amount of $_____ for a period of ____ months.

2. Payments shall be made by:

Employer address:

3. The debtor shall make the following additional payments to the Trustee:

Amount	Date	Source of Payment
---------------	-------------	--------------------------

4. The following special payment provisions shall apply (i.e. step up, seasonal, etc.):

2. Payment of Administrative Priority Claims

a. The Chapter 13 Trustee's compensation shall be 10% (or such other percentage as may be fixed by the Trustee) of the plan payments received from the debtor(s). The Chapter 13 Trustee may deduct such compensation from the plan payments on a weekly, monthly, or other periodic basis consistent with procedures established by the Trustee.

b. 1. A fee of $_____ shall be allowed to counsel for the debtor(s) for all services rendered in connection with the Plan, except and otherwise allowed by local rule or allowed by the Bankruptcy Court

2. The amount received by counsel for the debtor to date is $_____

3. The balance of legal fees payable through the Plan is $_____

4. Payment of legal fees to counsel for the debtor shall be made on a monthly basis from funds remaining after payment of trustee compensation, adequate protection payments, and equal monthly installments payments to creditors holding allowed secured claims against personal property. Legal fees shall be paid ahead of all claims for mortgage arrears, claims secured by real estate, and priority debts unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

3. Payment of Other Priority Claims

- a. The debtor shall make full payment to the following priority claims

Creditor	Amount	Interest Rate
-----------------	---------------	----------------------

- b. The debtor shall make payment to priority claims allowed under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)(1)(B) in accordance with 11 U.S.C §1322(a)(4). Any amounts not paid on such shall survive the discharge of the debtor(s)

Creditor	Amount
-----------------	---------------

- c. Payments on priority claims shall be made only after completion of payments on account of allowed administrative claims of the Chapter 13 trustee and counsel for the debtor, as well as payment of all allowed secured claims of any kind.

4. Payment of Secured Claims

- a. General Provisions

1. The holder of each allowed secured claim provided for below shall retain the lien securing such claim until the earlier of: (a) the payment of the underlying debt determined under applicable non-bankruptcy law or (b) discharge under Section 1328
2. Notwithstanding the provisions contained in 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(I), the Chapter 13 Trustee shall not be required to make payments to holders of allowed secured claims in fixed monthly installments. [Strict compliance with 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(I) might render the practical administration of the Plan impossible. For example, if the debtor remits a partial plan payment in an amount less than the “equal monthly installment” required by 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(I), then the Chapter 13 Trustee would be compelled to pay all the funds received to the secured creditor and would not be able to pay allowed administrative claims, including Chapter 13 Trustee commissions. Similarly, if the debtor remits a larger-than-required monthly plan payment, the Trustee could not make payment to the secured creditor in excess of the required “equal monthly installment,” thus causing the secured claim to accrue additional interest needlessly or perhaps requiring the excess funds to be paid to unsecured creditors].

3. For purposes of 11 U.S.C. §1325(a)(5)(B)(iii)(II), the holder of an allowed claim secured by personal property shall be conclusively deemed to be adequately protected throughout the term of the Plan so long as such creditor has received payment according to the following formula: total allowed secured claim divided by sixty multiplied by number of months elapsed since filing of the plan. However, this provision shall not effect the right of any party in interest to file a motion to dismiss the debtor's case for non-payment.
4. Notwithstanding the provisions contained in 11 U.S.C. §1326(a)(1)(C) , the Trustee (not the debtor) shall make pre-confirmation adequate protection payments to holders of allowed claims secured by personal property.
5. Claims for mortgage arrears and other claims secured by real estate shall be paid to the extent practicable in equal monthly installments commencing in the month after legal fees to debtor's counsel have been paid in full.
6. This plan shall constitute the debtor's motion to approve payment of secured claims in the manner specified herein, including valuation of personal property, interest rate, and proposed monthly installments.
7. In the event a pre-confirmation claim for mortgage arrears is filed in an amount greater than specified in the Plan, the debtor(s) shall have the option of allowing confirmation to proceed by increasing plan payments or duration as needed to provide for full payment of the claim. However, confirmation of the Plan shall not prevent the debtor from filing an objection to claim subsequent to confirmation for any reason, including objections based on excessive legal fees or costs imposed by the lender, improperly calculated arrears of principal and interest, and improperly claimed escrow advances.
8. Within 30 days of paying the last plan payment, the debtor may serve upon the holder of any claim for mortgage arrears a notice stating that: (1) the amount received by the creditor under the plan has cured the pre-petition default, (2) the creditor is required to treat the mortgage as reinstated unless the debtor has defaulted in post-petition obligations, (3) if the debtor has failed to make any post-petition payments, the creditor is required to provide to the debtor and file with the Court within 20 days of the notice under this paragraph an itemized statement of all payment received from the debtor since the filing of Petition and a statement of all payments alleged to be outstanding, and (4) if the creditor fails to provide and file such notice within the required time frame, the debtor may file a motion seeking a determination that the mortgage default is fully cured.
